

FOR THE LOVE OF NATURE

C: RTC

Q 1.
Ans-a :- 'This' is the chance to assist a documentary film-maker from the U.S.A. in making a film on snake bite.

Ans-b :- As a wild life film maker, he made ~~of~~ films, on nature for international television channels. He travelled around the country, watching and filming on all kinds of wildlife.

D:

Q 1.

Ans :- Shekar Dattatri was always interested in nature and used to observe animals even as a child. He used to photograph nature in and around Chennai. He got a chance to assist a documentary film-maker from the USA in making a film on snakebite. This sparked his interest in film-making and led to a full-time career as a wildlife film-maker.

Gulliver's Travels.

A. 1. Ans: a :- In these lines Gulliver referred to an island called Lilliput.

Ans: b :- Gulliver was put on a platform by more than nine hundred men. The platform was then pulled by fifteen hundred horses, guarded by five hundred men on both sides, and brought to the capital of Lilliput.

Ans: c :- After reaching the capital Gulliver was made to stay in a temple.

B. 1 :- Gulliver was put on a platform while still asleep, and many tiny people climbed on the platform to inspect him out of curiosity. One such person was an officer who put his spear into his nose, which tickled Gulliver, making him sneeze and wake up.

Ans 2 :- The Emperor ~~left~~ of Lilliput was a handsome man. He was very tiny but taller than the rest of his courtiers. He wore a gold helmet with a feather, and carried a sword which, to Gulliver, was about the size of a needle. The Emperor held this tiny sword to defend himself, if Gulliver broke free of his chains.